

Where Do Your Dues Go?

---

The National Federation has one of the lowest membership rates in the country – just $10 per year. For this nominal fee, Federation members receive a wide variety of services and access to political activities and information at all levels of government.

For $10, a member receives:

- Three issues of The Republican Woman per year.
- Free (or nominal fee) publications such as the Leader's Guide, Legislative Advocacy Manual, Protocol in Politics, Candidate Recruitment Kit, Prayer Book, precinct organization manual, membership card and brochures. NFRW also offers a series of samples for local clubs to utilize, including a newsletter, brochure and membership letters.
- Access to the Member-Only website, as well as help for clubs and states starting their own websites.
- Maintenance of National Headquarters, just a few miles from Washington, D.C. and Capitol Hill, and a professional staff.
- Representation by NFRW on Capitol Hill and at the White House.
- Membership services, 527 reporting information, Federal PAC information and professional fees.
- Communication tools, including the weekly newsletter and political briefing, get-out-the-vote efforts, membership recruitment efforts and message development.
- Campaign Management Schools and other programs and initiatives, including literacy programs and support our troops initiatives.
- Networking opportunities – the ability to meet and develop relationships with women from across the country.

Missouri Federation of Republican Women – 2010-6

www.mofrw.com